29th Oct - Fifth Sunday Luncheon after the service

As our regular pewslip editors will be away, could you let Jeff know if you are able to volunteer to produce the pewslip on the 3rd September. We may need to go without a pewslip on this Sunday.

The September roster is now available from the front desk. Could our volunteers please indicate on the list on the noticeboard, any dates you are aware of that you will be away during October, so that the next roster can be produced.

The Sapphire Community Pantry will open for business in Bega on Thursday 28th September, from 11am to 2pm, in the Salvation Army store in Gipps St. It is operated under the auspices of the Southern Women's Group, a not-for-profit, non-denominational, social enterprise, and will offer many grocery items, including bread, fruit and vegetables at low prices or for free. See the flyer on the noticeboard.

Please forward any items for inclusion in the pewslip to editor Tony at olinskyt@bigpond.com or on 64954217
